

The Nicholls Arms - A new site by TCRM

Published 19 September 2017

TCRM are proud to announce the launch of a new brochure site for "The Nicholls Arms".

The Nicholls Arms is a traditional country pub in the village of Coytrahen, Bridgend. The Nicholls Arms is a grade 2 listed building that dates back to the 18th Century. When you enter the Nicholls Arms it is like stepping back in time especially with the photographic history and memorabilia around the pub.

Louise & Mark Turner welcomes you to the Nicholls Arms, where you will feel at home with the cosy chesterfield sofas and roaring log fires on the cold days.
