

August

Published 14 August 2009

We left Cardiff 21 degrees and light rain, arrived in Palma, light rain and 22 degrees, so lots of miles and money and the only difference is one degree, paella and sangria. Luckily this sad state of affairs changed abruptly the next morning culminating in 45 degrees and zero clouds. Very sad news regarding Majorca and the bombs, we left just a few days before. By the Grace.....

